INTRODUCTION

The appeals process is used when a property owner and the property valuation administrator cannot reach an agreement on the current year value of the owner's property.

This manual consists of basic information and questions about the appeals process and the procedures that should be followed.

The manual also gives information about the membership of the local board of assessment appeals, the board's duties, and the role of the county clerk in the appeals process.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The property valuation administrator has the duty of assessing all property within the county.

The property valuation administrator shall, subject to the direction, instruction, and supervision of the Department of Revenue, make the assessment of all property in his county except as otherwise provided, prepare property assessment records, and have other powers and duties relating to assessment as may be prescribed by law or by the department. –KRS 132.420

An assessment is based on the condition of property on January 01.

All taxable property and all interests in taxable property, unless otherwise specifically provided by law, shall be listed, assessed, and valued as of January 1 of each year. –KRS 132.220(1)

Property must be assessed at its fair cash value.

All property, not exempted from taxation by this Constitution, shall be assessed for taxation at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale; and any officer, or other person authorized to assess values for taxation, who shall commit any willful error in the performance of his duty, shall be deemed guilty of misfeasance, and upon conviction thereof shall forfeit his office, and be otherwise punished as may be provided by law. –Kentucky Constitution, Section 172

Property shall be assessed for taxation at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, except: real property qualifying for an assessment moratorium shall not have its fair cash value assessment changed while under the assessment moratorium unless the assessment moratorium expires or is otherwise canceled or revoked. –KRS 132.190(3)

Each property valuation administrator shall assess at its fair cash value all property which it is his duty to assess except as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section. The property of one (1) person shall not be assessed willfully or intentionally at a lower or higher relative value than the same class of property of another, and any grossly discriminatory valuation shall be construed as an intentional discrimination. The property valuation administrator shall make every effort, through visits with the taxpayer, personal inspection of the property, from records, from his own knowledge, from information in property schedules, and from such other evidence as he may be able to obtain, to locate, identify, and assess property. –KRS 132.450(1)

APPEAL PROCESS OVERVIEW

When an assessment is raised, a notice is mailed to the property owner. If the property owner disagrees with the assessment a conference must first be held with the office of the property valuation administrator before an appeal can be filed. The general steps of an appeal are:

- 1) Owner receives notice of the assessment.
- 2) Owner contacts the PVA Office for a conference.
- 3) Owner disagrees with the outcome of the conference and files an appeal with the county clerk's office.
- 4) The appeal is heard before the local board of assessment appeals and a decision is made by the local board.
- 5) Any person aggrieved by the local board's decision may file an appeal with the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals (KBTA).
- 6) A hearing is held before the KBTA and the KBTA makes a decision.

A decision of the KBTA can be appealed to the local circuit court or Franklin Circuit Court, followed by the Kentucky Court of Appeals. A taxpayer unsatisfied by the results of a Court of Appeals decision may petition the Kentucky Supreme Court for discretionary review of his or her case, which the Court may or may not grant depending on the issues presented.

General information on the appeal procedure is found in the Kentucky Revised Statutes (KRS):

THE INSPECTION PERIOD and PVA CONFERENCE

Once assessment notices have been mailed, property owners may contact the PVA office with questions about the assessment notice, and may request a conference to discuss the assessment. Conferences can be held before or during the statutory inspection period that begins the first Monday in May and continuing for thirteen (13) days, including Saturdays. With the approval of the Department of Revenue, the Inspection Period can be extended or the starting date of the Inspection Period can be delayed.

What is the Inspection Period?

The Inspection Period is the time of year after assessments have been completed and assessment notices have been mailed to property owners, when owners can ask about their property assessments and file an appeal with the local board of assessment appeals if they do not agree with an assessment. A published notice of the Inspection Period is required.

1) The real property tax roll being prepared by the property valuation administrator for the current year, shall be open for inspection in the property valuation administrator's office for thirteen (13) days beginning on the first Monday in May of each year and shall be open for inspection for six (6) days each week, one (1) of which shall be Saturday. In case of necessity, the department may order a reasonable extension of time for the inspection period of the tax roll or it may order that the inspection period be at a different time than that provided in this section. However, the final day of the inspection period shall not be Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday. –KRS 133.045(1)

The conference shall be held prior to or during the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045. –KRS 133.120(1)(a)

- 1a.) During the conference the PVA or deputy must explain the reasons for the change in assessment (property to be assessed at its fair cash value), and how the assessment was determined.
