In the matter of:

FINAL RULING NO. 2016-08 March 10, 2016

Assessment of Limited Liability Entity Tax Tax Year Ended December 31, 2013

FINAL RULING

The Kentucky Department of Revenue ("the Department") has issued a limited liability entity tax ("LLET") assessment against LLC ("the Taxpayer") for the tax year ended December 31, 2013. The assessment resulted from an adjustment to the cost of goods sold deduction on the Taxpayer's Kentucky Schedule LLET. The following table provides a breakdown of the amount of tax due, all assessed penalties, as well as accrued interest as of the date of this final ruling:

TAX YEARS	TAX	INTEREST	PENALTIES	TOTAL
2013	8	8	$	$
TOTAL	$	$	$	$

The Taxpayer sold a horse farm and contends that it is entitled to a LLET cost of goods sold deduction for the amount incurred to acquire the real property sold. The Taxpayer argues the cost of goods sold deduction is allowable pursuant to KRS 141.0401(1)(d)(3).

March 10, 2016 – Final Ruling No. 2016-08 Page 2

In determining the LLET, KRS 141.0401(1)(d)(3) allows a cost of goods sold deduction only for taxpayers who are engaged in manufacturing, producing, reselling, retailing or wholesaling activities. Furthermore, pursuant to KRS 141.0401(1)(d)(1), amounts allowable as cost of goods sold for the LLET must be allowable as cost of goods sold pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code and any guidelines issued by the Internal Revenue Service, unless modified by Kentucky statute, and must be incurred in acquiring or producing the tangible product generating the Kentucky gross receipts. KRS 141.0401(1)(d)(1). Consequently, cost of goods sold for purposes of computing the LLET shall only include amounts that are allowable as cost of goods sold for federal purposes.

In this case, the Taxpayer has failed to establish that the costs included in its cost of goods sold deduction were includable as cost of goods sold for federal purposes. As such, the Taxpayer has failed to meet the statutory prerequisites for the LLET cost of goods sold deduction.

Based on the above, it is the position of the Kentucky Department of Revenue that the outstanding LLET assessment issued against LLC for the tax year ended December 31, 2013, is a valid liability due to the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In addition, the assessments for tax year ended December 31, 2013, has assessed interest that will accrue until the tax is paid. See KRS 141.220; 141.985; 131.183; 103 KAR 15:050 § 4. The Taxpayer is also liable for a penalty attributable to the failure to pay the tax due. KRS 131.180(2).

This letter is the final ruling of the Department of Revenue.

APPEAL

You may appeal this final ruling to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to the provisions of KRS 131.110, KRS 131.340-131.365, 103 KAR 1:010 and 802 KAR 1:010. If you decide to appeal this final ruling, your petition of appeal must be filed at the principal office of the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, 128 Brighton Park Boulevard, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601-3714, within thirty (30) days from the date of this final ruling. The rules of the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, which are set forth in 802 KAR 1:010, require that the petition of appeal must:

- 1. Be filed in quintuplicate;
- 2. Contain a brief statement of the law and facts in issue;

Proceedings before the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals are conducted in accordance with 103 KAR 1:010, 802 KAR 1:010 and KRS 131.340-131.365 and KRS Chapter 13B. Formal hearings are held by the Board concerning the tax appeals before it, with all testimony and proceedings officially reported. Legal representation of parties to appeals before the Board is governed by the following rules set forth in Section 3 of 802 KAR 1:010:

1. An individual may represent himself in any proceedings before the Board where his individual tax liability is at issue or he may obtain an attorney to represent him in those proceedings;

2. An individual who is not an attorney may not represent any other individual or legal entity

in any proceedings before the Board;

3. In accordance with Supreme Court Rule 3.020, if the appealing party is a corporation, trust, estate, partnership, joint venture, LLC, or any other artificial legal entity, the entity must be represented by an attorney on all matters before the Board, including the filing of the petition of appeal. If the petition of appeal is filed by a non-attorney representative for the legal entity, the appeal will be dismissed by the Board; and

4. An attorney who is not licensed to practice in Kentucky may practice before the Board only if he complies with Rule 3.030(2) of the Rules of the Kentucky Supreme Court.

You will be notified by the Clerk of the Board of the date and time set for any hearing.

Sincerely,
