FINAL RULING NO. 2009-43
November 19, 2009

Natural Gas Ad Valorem Tax Assessment
November 2009

FINAL RULING

The Kentucky Department of Revenue ("DOR") currently has an outstanding natural gas ad valorem tax assessments issued to and ("the Taxpayers") totaling $ for 2009. Below are the values reflected by the assessments and the values asserted by the Taxpayers as the true values, pursuant to KRS 132.820(6).

At issue is whether DOR correctly assessed the fair cash value of the natural gas property in question.

The Taxpayers maintain that due to the decrease in the market value of gas in the six months prior to , 2009, the DOR’s assessments exceed the properties’ fair cash value. This argument is without merit because property is assessed at its fair cash value for ad valorem tax purposes as of January 1. See KRS 132.220 (1). The Taxpayers have not submitted anything that would establish or indicate that the assessments do not represent the fair cash value of the properties in question as of the January 1, 2009 assessment date.

Gas reserves are assessed by DOR pursuant to KRS 132.820, which states, in part:

(1) The department shall value and assess unmined coal, oil, and gas reserves, and any other mineral or energy resources which are owned, leased, or otherwise controlled separately from the surface real property at no more than fair market value in place, considering all relevant circumstances...

DOR's position is that the gas properties in question have been properly valued at the fair cash value as required by law. See KRS 132.820(1); Kentucky Constitution, Section 172. The assessments in question are presumed to be valid and it is the taxpayer's burden to prove otherwise. Revenue Cabinet v. Gillig, 957 S.W.2d 206 (Ky. 1997); Walter G. Hougland & Sons v. McCracken County Board of Supervisors, 306 Ky. 234, 206 S.W.2d 951 (1947).

Therefore, the natural gas ad valorem tax assessments are correct and should not be reduced to the values asserted by the Taxpayers.

This letter is the final ruling of the Kentucky Department of Revenue.
