During the audit period, [redacted] operated primarily as a youth sports business. [redacted] organized basketball, soccer, and various other sports leagues for children of all ages; sold concessions for the participants and the general public; and also operated a physical fitness center at the same location located in [redacted], Kentucky.

[redacted] began filing sales and use tax returns in [redacted] 1992. It also began reporting under another sales and use tax number that is associated with the related non-profit organization, [redacted], Inc. During the audit period, [redacted] continued to report under the original sales and use tax number and filed LLET corporation returns.

[redacted] timely protested the assessment, expressing disagreement with the assessment relating to unallowable deductions and consumable supply purchases.

DOR requested documentation necessary to address [redacted]'s protested liability. After numerous requests, [redacted] provided sufficient supporting documentation to warrant adjustment to only a portion of the unallowable deductions in the assessment to the amount shown in the schedule above.

The assessment issued by DOR to [redacted] is presumed to be correct, with the burden of proving otherwise resting squarely upon the taxpayer, or in this case, [redacted]. Hahn v. Allphin, 282 S.W.2d 824 (Ky. 1955); KRS 139.260. [redacted] has offered no valid documentation that would meet its burden of proof. The information [redacted] has provided does not refute the findings of DOR's assessment. Thus, DOR has been provided with nothing that would show or indicate that the remaining assessment at issue is incorrect.

As indicated above, a penalty has been assessed pursuant to KRS 131.180(2) because of [redacted]'s failure to have timely paid at least 75% of the tax determined to be due by the DOR. [redacted] has provided nothing that would indicate that this penalty was erroneously applied or that it should be waived or abated.

Therefore, the outstanding sales and use tax assessments totaling $[redacted] (plus applicable interest and penalties) are deemed legitimate liabilities of [redacted], Inc. due the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

This letter is the final ruling of the Department of Revenue.
