FINIAL RULING NO. 2009-60
December 18, 2009

Tangible Personal Property Tax Refund Request

FINAL RULING

The Kentucky Department of Revenue currently has before it a request by [Redacted], Inc. ("[Redacted]") that the taxes due on its current year’s assessment be offset by ad valorem or property taxes it appears to have paid, apparently erroneously, a number of years ago.

[Redacted]’s request is in effect a refund claim. Subsection 2 of the applicable refund statute, KRS 134.590, states in relevant part the following:

No state government agency shall authorize a refund unless each taxpayer individually applies for a refund within two (2) years from the date the taxpayer paid the tax. Each claim or application for a refund shall be in writing and statement the specific grounds upon which it is based.

All of the prior years’ taxes that [Redacted] seeks to have offset or credited against the current year’s taxes were paid more than two years before the date of its request. [Redacted]’s request is therefore barred under the plain and unambiguous statutory language quoted above. [Redacted] cannot avoid the application of KRS 134.590(2) by characterizing its refund request as a request for a credit. There is no legal authority for what it seeks. See also American Life and Accident Insurance Company of Kentucky v. Commonwealth, 173 S.W.3d 910 (Ky. App. 2004).

This letter is the final ruling of the Kentucky Department of Revenue.
