Qualifying Exam for Monroe County Property Valuation Administrator to be Given December 19

Open to Monroe County residents only

FRANKFORT, Ky. – Today the Kentucky Department of Revenue announced a special examination will be held at 10 a.m., Thursday, December 19, 2019, to qualify prospective candidates for the vacant office of Monroe County Property Valuation Administrator (PVA) as required by state law [KRS 132.380(1)].

The examination, which is open to Monroe County residents only, will be held at the Kentucky Association of Counties (KACo) Building, 400 Englewood Drive, Frankfort, Kentucky. Identification will be required.

Persons who pass the examination will be qualified and eligible for appointment by the governor to serve as PVA until the general election of November 3, 2020. All persons who qualify will be eligible to run in the 2020 general election for the remaining unexpired term of the Monroe County PVA, which ends December 5, 2022. The appointed PVA also is eligible to seek re-election.

Pre-registration is requested but not required. Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. and the doors to the examination room will be closed at 10:00 a.m.

Applicants must meet certain criteria as set forth in Section 100 of the Kentucky Constitution. Applicants must:

- Be at least 24 years of age;
- Be a citizen of Kentucky;
- Have resided in the state at least two years preceding the election; and
- Have resided in Monroe County at least one year preceding the election.

The written examination is based on verbal and mathematical skills. All materials necessary to take the examination, including calculators, are supplied. There is no study guide for the exam.
